

Bite®

Designed to fit around your day

Bite® is a mobile storage unit that wraps around bench desking and workstations, providing not only spacious multi-functional storage, but creating a sense of personal space within the open plan working environment

A multitude of features include an upper cantilevered secure compartment with separate key, a letter box for receiving mail and a lid which opens up to create a mini-screen that can be specified with a bulletin board or whiteboard. Both locks on the unit are keyed alike. The upper and lower elements bridge the worksurface, providing space-efficient and ergonomically-sound storage that's easily accessible.
